

No reproduction in any format without express written permission from the copyright holder.
© 2004 All Rights Reserved, University of Miami

Humberto Francis Pardo (a.k.a. “Alejandro”). Born in 1947 in Havana, black. He attended the Anti-Aircraft Artillery School in Mariel from 1962-1963; the Academy of the PVO in Minsk, U.S.S.R. from 1965-1969; and the Superior Military Academy in 1988 where he specialized in rocketry. His international missions included Angola, Ethiopia, and Nicaragua. In 1976 he received the distinction of International Fighter. His current rank is General Brigadier. He was appointed a member of the Central Committee of the PCC in 1994 during the V Party Congress.