

No reproduction in any format without express written permission from the copyright holder.
© 2004 All Rights Reserved, University of Miami

José Milián Pino. Born in the former Las Villas province in 1944, white. Division General, Deputy Minister in charge of Orden Interior at the Ministry of the Interior (Ministerio del Interior, MININT).

As a colonel he was stationed in Angola for two years in the early 1980s. Promoted to Brigadier General in the mid 1980s, he was a member of the Generals' Council who tried DG General Arnaldo Ochoa in the summer of 1989.